

14 April 1952

One of the high spots of the musical season at The Cleveland Museum of Art will be the ~~concert~~ recital by Ruggiero Ricci, young American violinist who has come recently into great international fame, Friday, April 25 8.15 p.m. Free to the public. He will play compositions of Scarlatti, Beethoven, Schubert, the contemporary composer B. A. Zimmerman, Bartok, Tschaiikowsky and Paganini.